Ideal for garden beds, borders and paths, the all-steel Monument range provides rustic character to fit both modern and traditional settings. Use as a single piece, or make a bold statement with a set of three.

It stands 1200mm high on a 300 x 300mm base.

Handy Hints:

- Position carefully as rust run-off can stain surrounding areas
- Plant safe, rust run-off will not harm plants but it is always best practice to wash edible crops before eating
- Beware of sharp edges and always wear gloves and glasses during installation to avoid cuts and abrasions
